PRACTICE FOCUS: REPRESENTING INJURED WORKERS

The Ramos Law Firm exclusively handles catastrophic, neurological, and orthopedic injuries that stem from workplace accidents.

ABOUT ATTORNEY LAW

Mrs. Chinny Law is committed to rigorously advocating for injured workers' rights and establishing highly personalized working relationships with her clients. As a former workers' compensation paralegal and instructor at the university level, she is uniquely postured to empathize with injured workers' and effectively communicate in the courtroom. Additionally, she is known for maintaining lasting relationships with her clients well past the resolution of their cases.

Mrs. Law attended John Marshall Law School where she graduated in 2014 in the top twenty percent of her class. She holds a Master's degree in Conflict Management as an Honors Scholar and an undergraduate degree in Political Science, both from Kennesaw State University. She has tried and appealed cases before the State Board of Workers' Compensation and has participated in successful mediation settlement conferences. Furthermore, she has written appellate briefs and delivered oral arguments before the Board's Appellate Division.

She is a first generation Filipina-American, born and raised in Georgia. Mrs. Law has volunteered for the Atlanta Volunteer Lawyers Foundation, Georgia Asian Pacific American Bar Association, Nicholas Shelter, and Augusta Wills Clinic. Additionally, she is an active undergraduate and law student mentor.

Outside the office, she enjoys traveling with her husband and hiking with her two rescue dogs. She is an active tennis player, skier, and yogi.
